REPORT NO. 1

Section 3 of Chapter 1397 of the Statutes of 1988

The information below was found in the Official Publications Archives on the California State Assembly Office of the Chief Clerk.

CHAPTER 1397

An act to add and repeal Section 9319 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1988]

SEC. 3. The Department of Aging shall report to the Legislature on the pilot project established pursuant to Section 9319 of the Welfare and Institutions Code no later than the end of the second year of the pilot project. The Department of Aging may contract with any other agency or agencies or with any independent private contractor or contractors for the preparation of the report required by this section. This report shall include a determination of the effectiveness of the pilot project in reaching the target population, and shall include statistical and financial data relating to the project.

The pilot project shall be deemed successful if at least 10 percent of the target population, which would not otherwise receive services, has been served. If less than 10 percent of the population has been served, the pilot project shall be deemed to have failed and shall not be continued.

SEC. 4. (a) The sum of one hundred forty-nine thousand dollars ($149,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Aging, to be used for the 1988-89 fiscal year to implement this act.

(b) Fees charged to private patients and reimbursements from
